FOLSOM FELINE RESCUE

FOR CATWALK 2010

ON OCTOBER 2

IN FOLSOM.

Folsom Feline Rescue will hold its tenth annual 5K fundraising walk-a-thon, CatWalk 2010, on Saturday, October 2 in Folsom.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. at the event desk in the parking lot near the Leidesdorff light rail station, across from the intersection of Sutter Street and Decatur in old town Folsom. The walk starts at 10:00 a.m., rain or shine.

Registration fees and pledges will support Folsom Feline Rescue's spay and neuter programs for companion cats and dogs, as well as feral cats, helping to prevent unwanted litters and decreasing euthanasia in Sacramento County.

Registration is free with $25 or more in pledges; otherwise it's $25 per walker. Kids 12 and under walk free.

Just ask your friends, family members, and associates to pledge a specific dollar amount for each kilometer you walk. On the day of the walk, bring your pledge form and the checks you have gathered to the event registration desk, and get ready for some fun!

For complete CatWalk 2010 registration information, fundraising pledge forms, and a route map, visit www.folsomfelines.org/catwalk.shtml. Or call Folsom Feline Rescue at 916-365-4900; leave a detailed message including your name, telephone number, and address.

COME AND JOIN THE FUN—AND HELP US TAKE STEPS TO END PET OVERPOPULATION!
